

NEVER TOO OLD TO MAKE ALIYAH: Berta Lovinger, 96, is seen here outside the old terminal building at Ben Gurion Airport with some of her family, after her arrival in Israel from Outremont, Quebec last week. Lovinger, who was met by her five grandchildren, will for the time being stay with her daughter and son-in-law, Miriam & Itamar Pollack, in Petach Tikvah. The Pollacks came on aliyah themselves just four months ago from Connecticut. Lovinger was one of 191 new immigrants arrived from Canada and the United States aboard a specially chartered E1A1 flight organized by Nefesh B'Nefesh, an organization that encourages aliyah mainly from North America and Britain. [Isranet photo]