

Required Documents – License for General Medicine

Below you can find the required documents for obtaining a medical license in Israel (as appears on the ministry of health's website)

- 1 passport photo.
- 1 photocopy of an Israeli identity card, including the address slip and statement of status in Israel (citizen or resident). if you don't have it yet, a copy of your current passport.
- A Questionnaire for Health Care Professionals.
- Final diploma in medicine from an accredited university or a confirmation of graduation from the university, completion of all obligations and eligibility for a diploma in this profession that will be granted on a certain date .
- A valid license.
- A specialist certificate - board certifications (if applicable) – copies only.
- Professional integrity certificate (letter of good standing) by the competent authorities from the applicant's origin state, confirming that there were no disciplinary, malpractice or medical ethics complaints against the applicant. To be mail directly from the medical board of the state in which you are licensed in to the Israeli ministry of health.

The list of documents required for your specialty recognition can be found at the IMA website - <https://www.ima.org.il/internesnew/viewcategory.aspx?categoryid=7354>

As you will see, the list of documents can be a bit confusing so here is a short clarification regarding a few items on the list:

#5 is a certification of completing an internship (NOT residency), if applicable.

#6 is a certification of completing residency.

#7 is a syllabus of your residency, as detailed as possible.

#8 is your board certification
